What AWE does is pretty special. The work they do helps to make sure that our country and everyone in it is kept safe, every day.

AWE is a team of around 6,000 people and they are right on your doorstep!
AWE offers a wide variety of Level 3 (Advanced) and Level 6 (Degree) apprenticeship roles.

MEET THE APPRENTICES

Click an image to read their story

- Lisa, Control & Instrumentation Apprentice
- Joe, Nuclear Engineer Degree Apprentice
- Sophie, Business Administration Apprentice
- Liam and Callum, Quality Inspector Apprentice and Precision Machining Apprentice
- Molly, Mechanical Maintenance Apprentice
- Keith, Materials & Analytical Science Apprentice
- Emily, Engineering Apprentice
- Emily, Business Administration Apprentice
- Ben, Science Apprentice
WHY CHOOSE AN AWE APPRENTICESHIP?

- Gain a nationally recognised qualification
- Develop skills like project management and team-working
- Earn £11,000 for Level 3 advanced apprenticeships and £13,500 for Level 6 degree apprenticeships
- A generous paid annual leave entitlement
- Every other Friday off
- Pension plan membership
- Employee discounts and concession schemes
- Based in Aldermaston near Reading
- A permanent contract from day one. Following the successful completion of the programme, you will move into a role within the business.

FIND OUT MORE AND APPLY
AWE also offers a 2 year graduate programme. Read more and watch a video.

If you are looking for an exciting position to start in September 2022, AWE would love to receive your application. Applications to their Apprentice Programme are open now.